Democracy & Election Management

Election Commission of India

Free, fair, credible and professionally managed elections form the bedrock of a healthy and vibrant democracy. Through efficient and scientific management of elections and regular updation of electoral rolls, the Election Commission of India (ECI) has played a key role in strengthening democracy in India.

Conducting Indian elections is the world's largest management event, requiring services of over 10 million trained and skilled officials and numerous applications of the latest technology in various electoral processes. India International Institute of Democracy & Election Management (IIIDEM) was established by ECI in June, 2011 to cater to the capacity building requirements of these officials as well as to assist other Election Management Bodies, in need of technical and capacity building assistance.

The new campus of IIIDEM is coming up at Dwarka, approximately 10kms from the Indira Gandhi International Airport, New Delhi. It will have world class infrastructure and training facilities, centres for various activities, comfortable hostel accommodation and the services of renowned national and international experts.
